

Requirements

Entries should be about 20 lines in length (not less than 10 and not more than 30) and can be of any style.

The poem doesn't need to have been created specifically for the competition and can have been previously published, but it cannot have been used in a multimedia project such as short movies, documentaries, feature films etc.

Entrants must be 18 or over, or need to have permission from their own legal guardian.

We will only use your personal information in relation to the Competition and will not use it for any other purposes whatsoever. We will not keep this information for longer than is necessary for the operation of the Competition.

Each entrant may only send one Poem to the Competition.

Sending in an entry to the Competition means that you accept these Terms and Conditions, which are the rules of the Competition.
